Description

ELL Atmos combines four functions in one product. ELL Atmos is the optimal solution, if you require a portable air conditioner or heat pump that combines cooling, heating, dehumidification, and ventilation functions.

This 4-in-1 climate system is the obvious choice for those who want to ensure a comfortably cool indoor climate in the summer and a warm temperature on cold days.

ELL Atmos is easy to use and adjust to your needs. With the option to control it via the touchscreen display, app, or remote control, you can operate it no matter where you are.

With ELL Atmos, you don't have to compromise the decor – the climate system comes in a sleek design in a modern anthracite grey colour, making it pleasing to the eye.
